NSFAS overview

The National Student Financial Aid Scheme (NSFAS) is a statutory body providing financial aid to eligible students who wish to study at public universities and Technical Vocational Education and Training (TVET) colleges. NSFAS is mandated to manage and distribute funds in accordance with the provisions of the NSFAS Act (Act 56 of 1999).

Fraud and Corruption

All providers are to take note of the implications of contravening the Prevention and Combating of Corrupt Activities Act, Act No 12 of 2004 and any other Act applicable.

The National Student Financial Aid Scheme is committed to conducting business ethically and is constantly introducing proactive measures to ensure that we identify and appropriately respond to any unlawful and unethical business practices. All NSFAS tenders are subject to certain audit processes and limited due diligence checks with the intend to identify any possible unlawful or unethical practices.

Reporting of any unlawful or unethical incidents to NSFAS- complaints mechanism

Should any bidder, potential or current supplier of NSFAS or any other third party:

- receive any irregular contact or correspondence from anyone presenting themselves as an employee or representative of NSFAS
- receive any contact or correspondence from anyone soliciting any bribe of any form
- become aware of any irregular or illegal conduct by any party who has a relationship with NSFAS or any NSFAS official you are requested to immediately report it to NSFAS's Governance, Risk and Compliance (GRC) Department. All information provided to the NSFAS GRC department will be treated with utmost confidentiality and in terms of the Protected Disclosures Act, Act 26 of 2000.

For any unlawful or unethical incidents, please email: forensics@nsfas.org.za

All questions for clarity in relation to the bid must be submitted to scm@nsfas.org.za, and not to any other email address.

Reporting of any unlawful or unethical incidents to the South African Police- complaints mechanism

Bidders, current or potential NSFAS suppliers or any other third party who become aware of any unlawful and unethical conduct are encouraged to report the matter to the South African Police. NSFAS request that details of such reports made to the SAP be shared with NSFAS official listed above to enable consolidation of possible related investigations.

Clarifications / Additional information / Rights

Any clarification required by a bidder regarding the meaning or interpretation of the bid specifications, or any other aspect concerning the bid, are to be requested in writing by email from scm@nsfas.org.za (and not to any other email address) at least five (5) working days before the closing date of the bid. The bid number should be mentioned in all correspondence. Telephonic requests for clarification will not be accepted. Bidders are reminded that NSFAS SCM officials will never contact bidders telephonically or by other method other than through the official SCM email address listed above.

Where reference has been made to a brand/trademark, an equivalent may be proposed by the bidder.

Additional Information

During the evaluation of the bids, additional information may be requested in writing from bidders, for clarity. Replies to such requests must be submitted, within 5 (five) working days from the date of request, or as otherwise indicated. Failure to comply, may lead to your bid being disregarded.

Rights

The following rights are reserved:

- 1) NSFAS reserves the right to appoint more than one (1) service provider.
- 2) NSFAS further reserves the right to engage with the short-listed bidders for price negotiation and a site inspection where necessary.
- 3) NSFAS reserves the right to invite the shortlisted for a presentation as part of the bid process.
- 4) NSFAS reserves the right to not select the lowest price/lowest price only, provided that justifiable criteria are applied during the awarding process. These may include aspects of timelines, risk management, amongst others.
- 5) NSFAS reserves the right to not award the tender to the shortlisted bidder should any risk arise from any NSFAS due diligence assessment performed and/or any underperformance was identified in a previous and/or current contract held with the bidder and/or any risk arising from the completed standard bidding form number four (4).
- 6) NSFAS reserves the right to award the contract in whole or in parts.
- 7) NSFAS reserves to cancel this tender advertisement at any time during the tender advertisement period.

Consent

By responding to this tender, both the entity and its directors provide consent to NSFAS to perform background checks which would include amongst others, the relevant Transunion checks, should it wish to do so.

By responding to this tender, the bidder agrees to all the terms and conditions as included in the bid document.

Bid submission

One (1) physical bid proposal MUST be handed in/delivered to:

The TENDER box situated at:
4 Christiaan Barnard Street
Ground floor
City Centre, Cape Town

Tenders can be delivered and deposited into the tender box between 08:30 and 16:00, Mondays to Fridays prior to the closing date, and between 08:30 and 11:00 on the closing date. Bidders should ensure that they allow sufficient time for traffic, flights (if flying to Cape Town from another city/country), access to the building etc, as NSFAS will not be held responsible for any delays as a result of these.

Please do not leave bid submissions at the security desk or at the reception or with any individual, as these submissions will be disregarded and not accepted.

ALL bid submissions must be deposited into the tender box.

Any bid submissions provided to NSFAS that is not submitted in the tender box will be disregarded.

No faxed or e-mailed bid proposals will be accepted. The bidders are encouraged to index and paginate the bid proposal.

Respondents should ensure that tender documents are delivered to NSFAS in the tender box before the closing date and time of the tender. If the tender document is late, it will not be accepted and will be disregarded. Bid proposals submitted on time shall not be returned to the bidder.

Any tender submitted shall remain valid, irrevocable and open for written acceptance by NSFAS for a period of 120 (one hundred and twenty) days. A tender submitted shall further be deemed to remain valid after the expiry of the above mentioned 120-day period until formal acceptance by NSFAS, unless NSFAS is notified in writing by the tenderer of anything to the contrary (including any further conditions the tender may introduce). Any further conditions that the tenderer may introduce will be considered at the sole discretion of NSFAS.

Bidders should indicate on the cover of the bid proposal (in a sealed envelope/box), the following information:

- Bid number SCM004/2022
- Closing date and time 23 September 2022 at 11:00
- The name and address of the bidder

Late bids

Bids received late will not be considered for evaluation purposes. A bid will be considered late if it arrived even one second after 11:00 am or any time thereafter. The tender (bid) box shall be locked at exactly 11:00 am and bids arriving late will not be considered under any circumstances. Bidders are therefore strongly advised to ensure that bids be dispatched allowing enough time for any unforeseen events that may delay the delivery of the bid. Bids should not be given to the security or reception. It must be submitted in the tender box.

Bids sent to NSFAS via courier shall be deemed to be received at the date and time of arrival and deposited into the NSFAS tender box. Bids received in the tender box after the closing date and time of the bid, shall therefore be deemed to be received late. Bidders should allow time to access the premises due to security arrangements that need to be observed.

Response Structure:

The contents of the bid document must be as follows, and numbering below, with each schedule punched, placed in a file and separated from the next schedule with a file divider.

Please complete the checklist below to verify your submission of the relevant documents:

Schedule 7	Detailed Bid proposal in response to bid specification requirements

Contract Negotiations

The successful bidder (s) will be required to enter a written contract/SLA with NSFAS. The final terms and conditions will be negotiated between NSFAS and the successful bidders (s). Should the awarded bidder fail to sign the SLA within a reasonable timeframe deemed by NSFAS, NSFAS reserves the right to cancel the award/contract and award the tender to the next ranked bidder.

Payments

By responding to this bid document, the service provider agrees to the following

NSFAS will pay the successful bidder (s) the fees set out in the final contract according to the table of deliverables. No additional amounts will be payable by NSFAS to the successful bidder (s).

The successful bidder (s) shall invoice NSFAS for the services rendered in a reasonable timeframe. The invoices billed to NSFAS must be in relation to the original scope of work/terms of reference.

The invoice must be accompanied by supporting source document(s) containing detailed information, as NSFAS may reasonably require, for the purposes of establishing the specific nature, extent and quality of the services which were undertaken by the successful bidder (s). The purchase order number must be included in all invoices submitted to NSFAS.

No payment will be made to the successful bidder (s) unless an original tax invoice complying with section 20 of the VAT Act, 1991 (Act No 89 of 1991), as amended, has been submitted to NSFAS.

Payment shall be made by bank transfer into the successful bidder (s) back account normally 30 days after receipt of an acceptable, original, valid tax invoice.

Payments will only be made to the bidder in accordance with the purchase order issued to the awarded bidder. Any services delivered by the bidder outside of the original bid specifications and over and above the purchase order value will not be paid for as NSFAS is not liable for these payments.

Should the service provider perform any additional work outside of the tender award and its requirements, NSFAS will not be held liable for such payment to the service provider. Should you receive any instruction from NSFAS that does not come from the SCM unit to perform any work outside of the original bid specification, NSFAS will not be held liable for this payment. By responding to this tender, you acknowledge and agree to these terms.

1. Purpose

NSFAS intends to appoint a reputable financial institution (s) in the banking sector to provide banking services to the entity for a period of five (5) years, renewable. The services include general banking services; transactional banking services; and electronic banking services, amongst others.

The Terms of Reference would serve to guide the process of selecting and appointing a qualified service provider (s) by ensuring a match between the banking service requirements of NSFAS as an entity and the knowledge and experience of the service provider.

It is the intention of NSFAS to enter into a formal Service Level agreement with the successful bidder to provide the banking services further described hereunder. These ToRs and the bidder's proposal will form the basis of the service level agreement to be entered between the parties.

This service is being procured in terms of the Public Finance Management Act No. 1 of 1999, Section 7(2) (a) and (b) which states:

A department authorized to open a bank account in terms of the prescribed framework, a public entity or a constitutional institution may open a bank account only —

- a. with a bank registered in South Africa and approved in writing by the National Treasury; and
- b. after any prescribed tendering procedures have been complied with.

2. Background

The National Student Financial Aid Scheme (NSFAS) is a statutory body providing financial aid to eligible students who wish to study at public universities and Technical Vocational Education and Training (TVET) colleges. NSFAS is mandated to manage and distribute funds in accordance with the provisions of the NSFAS Act (Act 56 of 1999).

Due to the nature of its business NSFAS manages high value transactions with funders and institutions. Furthermore, NSFAS makes regular high-volume payments to institutions, suppliers, and employees. The frequency of transactions varies depending of the type of transaction. There are daily, weekly, monthly, and quarterly transactions approved by two (2) levels of signatories.

3. Mandatory requirements

All bids must comply with the mandatory requirements and failure to comply with any of these requirements will immediately disqualify the bid.

No.	Mandatory requirements	Page reference per bidder proposal
3.1	The bidder must submit evidence of registration with the Banking Association South Africa (BASA).
3.2	The bidder must submit a copy of their valid banking license.

4. Functional specifications

4.1 Required expertise and experience

The bidder's proposal must outline the expertise and competencies on offer and should expressly detail their previous experience in dealing with services of this nature. This may be supported by the CVs of the team or account managers. To achieve the scope of work, the bidder/s appointed to undertake this service should demonstrate comprehensive knowledge, a proven track record, expertise, and experience in the provision of banking services. Required more than ten years senior management experience in the banking sector as an account manager or in a more senior role.

4.2 Required products and services

- 4.2.1 Transactional banking services
- 4.2.2 Call accounts
- 4.2.3 Electronic banking solutions
- 4.2.4 Payments management

4.3 Value added services

NSFAS expects the successful bidder to provide the following value-added services:

a. Fraud prevention and cyber crime

Training and advice on prevention and detection of fraud, including cyber-crime with respect to online payments and access to banking accounts.

b. Account management

Two dedicated and experienced account managers to be allocated to manage and oversee all bank accounts of NSFAS. The account managers should be able to provide value adding advice when the need arises which includes:

- i. Identify all additional systems interface requirements for electronic statements and electronic fund transfers.
- ii. Identify Cash Management, Payments Management, and Internet Banking needs of the entity.
- iii. Liaise with appropriate officials regarding interfaces with NSFAS business applications.
- iv. Identify, in consultation with NSFAS all access levels, authorities, profiles and limits for officials requiring access to the electronic banking systems.
- v. Attend to the legal documentation and the signing thereof.
- vi. Formalize service level agreements incorporating back up procedures and processes particularly with regards to electronic funds transfers.
- vii. Ensure quick turnaround times on queries based on the Service Level Agreement.

- viii. Identify training requirements and arrange the necessary training in consultation with NSFAS.
- ix. Provide user manuals.

c. Training and support

The successful bidder must provide the necessary training to NSFAS personnel to use the electronic systems. Details of the training and implementation plan should be provided.

5. Technical specifications

The bidder's proposal must meet the following technical requirements:

5.1 Transactional Banking Services / Current Account services

a. Introduction

The bidder should provide a commitment to offer customised and sustainable banking services in relation to NSFAS's needs through dedicated service managers. NSFAS requires approximately five (5) current accounts for operational purposes. This may increase if required.

b. Receipting Services

The bidder should be able to provide the following services:

- i. The processing of electronic receipts, debit orders and direct deposits.
- ii. Provide a deposit identifier on the NSFAS's deposits which incorporates a deposit identifier validation routine to facilitate identification and reconciliation of all deposits made into NSFAS's accounts; and,
- iii. Integration with NSFAS systems.

c. Beneficiary bank account verification service

The bidder is to provide confirmation (affirmative or negative only) of details (Account name, branch code, and account number) supplied by the NSFAS. This service we believe will provide the necessary validation of beneficiary banking details prior to input into NSFAS's beneficiary master file.

The Bidder should have the ability to transmit confirmation requests to NSFAS by Electronic means, e-mail, telephone, and fax.

5.2 Petty Cash

NSFAS requires a separate account dedicated for petty cash with a card

5.3 Call accounts

NSFAS requires multiple call accounts (+/- 30) to be set up for different donors/funders for the purposes of investing cash that is not required for immediate use. The bidders should provide an indication of the interest rates that will be earned on call accounts.

5.4 Electronic banking solutions

a. Introduction

Electronic banking services required by NSFAS include daily payments from current accounts, electronic funds transfer and deposit identification when payment is received or made.

b. Transaction and Balances

The bidder should be able to provide the following services:

- i. On-line real-time account balance and transaction enquiries.
- ii. Real-time transaction search capabilities.
- iii. Transaction history (list of transactions) storage retrieval for up to 180 calendar days.
- iv. The ability to download bank statements in an acceptable and compatible format.
- v. Full audit trail and updated security system; and,
- vi. Electronic transfers between NSFAS accounts.

5.5 Payment management

The bidder should be able to facilitate secure and timeous payments as well as meeting NSFAS's requirements in respect of EFTs to vendors and institutions.

The following are imperatives for management of payments:

- i. Timeous and secure processing of all transactions.
- ii. Ability to interface (where required) with business applications currently being used.
- iii. Stringent authorisation and security controls.
- iv. Efficient management and reduction of risk.
- v. Security - all funds in the bank accounts of NSFAS are safeguarded against fraudulent activities of any nature.
- vi. Enhanced data integrity due to stringent validation controls; and
- vii. Cost efficient processes.

5.6 Solution should integrate seamlessly into NSFAS accounting/ reporting software

6. Contract Period

The contract period will be five (5) years from the date of appointment, renewable on an annual basis thereafter if required by NSFAS.

7. Pricing Schedule

Please consider the inevitable Consumer Price Index (CPI) increases year on year on the pricing upon the duration of the contract period being more than a 12-month period. The pricing must be inclusive of all costs including disbursements (travel, accommodation etc) where applicable.

The prospective bidder should provide details of the proposed escalation in costs and fees from year 2 to year 5 (or the basis that will be used to determine the annual increase in fees, cost, and rates).

The bidder MUST complete the below pricing schedule and not submit any other pricing schedule, as the below pricing schedule will be used for price evaluation purposes. The schedule below includes the core banking fees that will be used for evaluation purposes. It is understood that there may be other general and specified fees that is dependent on the nature of the transaction however for the purposes of this evaluation, only the core fees as per the table below shall be used for evaluation purposes.

The sum of the costs in the pricing schedule below will be totaled and then averaged to determine an average bank charge rate which shall be used for the price evaluation purposes.

No.	Description	Monthly charge (VAT included)
1.	Monthly bank charge for current accounts
2.	Monthly bank charge for call accounts
3.	Monthly bank charge for online banking services
4.	Monthly debit order fee

8. Evaluation Criteria

The table below summarizes the steps that NSFAS follows to evaluate service providers proposals.

No	PHASE	DESCRIPTION
3.1	PHASE 1: Mandatory requirements evaluation	All bids must comply with the mandatory requirements. Failure to comply with any of these requirements will immediately disqualify the bid.
3.2	PHASE 2: Functional requirements evaluation	Bidders are required to achieve a combined minimum score of 70% for functional criteria to progress to be evaluated for the Price and BBB-EE.

3.3.	PHASE 3: Price and BBB-EE.	Bidders who qualified to progress to this stage will be evaluated on their Price and BBB-EE which shall be used for the basis for award.
------	----------------------------	--

Functional Evaluation

General Conditions of Contract

1. Definitions

1. The following terms shall be interpreted as indicated:
 - 1.1 “Closing time” means the date and hour specified in the bidding documents for the receipt of bids.
 - 1.2 “Contract” means the written agreement entered into between the purchaser and the supplier, as recorded in the contract form signed by the parties, including all attachments and appendices thereto and all documents incorporated by reference therein.
 - 1.3 “Contract price” means the price payable to the supplier under the contract for the full and proper performance of his contractual obligations.
 - 1.4 “Corrupt practice” means the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in contract execution.
 - 1.5 "Countervailing duties" are imposed in cases where an enterprise abroad is subsidized by its government and encouraged to market its products internationally.
 - 1.6 “Country of origin” means the place where the goods were mined, grown or produced or from which the services are supplied. Goods are produced when, through manufacturing, processing or substantial and major assembly of components, a commercially recognized new product results that is substantially different in basic characteristics or in purpose or utility from its components.
 - 1.7 “Day” means calendar day.
 - 1.8 “Delivery” means delivery in compliance of the conditions of the contract or order.
 - 1.9 “Delivery ex stock” means immediate delivery directly from stock actually on hand.
 - 1.10 “Delivery into consignees store or to his site” means delivered and unloaded in the specified store or depot or on the specified site in compliance with the conditions of the contract or order, the supplier bearing all risks and charges involved until the supplies are so delivered and a valid receipt is obtained.
 - 1.11 "Dumping" occurs when a private enterprise abroad market its goods on own initiative in the RSA at lower prices than that of the country of origin and which have the potential to harm the local industries in the RSA.
 - 1.12 " Force majeure" means an event beyond the control of the supplier and not involving the supplier's fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may include, but is not restricted to, acts of the purchaser in its sovereign capacity, wars or revolutions, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions and freight embargoes.

- 1.13 “Fraudulent practice” means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of any bidder and includes collusive practice among bidders (prior to or after bid submission) designed to establish bid prices at artificial non-competitive levels and to deprive the bidder of the benefits of free and open competition.
- 1.14 “GCC” means the General Conditions of Contract.
- 1.15 “Goods” means all of the equipment, machinery, and/or other materials that the supplier is required to supply to the purchaser under the contract.
- 1.16 “Imported content” means that portion of the bidding price represented by the cost of components, parts or materials which have been or are still to be imported (whether by the supplier or his subcontractors) and which costs are inclusive of the costs abroad, plus freight and other direct importation costs such as landing costs, dock dues, import duty, sales duty or other similar tax or duty at the South African place of entry as well as transportation and handling charges to the factory in the Republic where the supplies covered by the bid will be manufactured.
- 1.17 “Local content” means that portion of the bidding price which is not included in the imported content provided that local manufacture does take place.
- 1.18 “Manufacture” means the production of products in a factory using labour, materials, components and machinery and includes other related value-adding activities.
- 1.19 “Order” means an official written order issued for the supply of goods or works or the rendering of a service.
- 1.20 “Project site,” where applicable, means the place indicated in bidding documents.
- 1.21 “Purchaser” means the organization purchasing the goods.
- 1.22 “Republic” means the Republic of South Africa.
- 1.23 “SCC” means the Special Conditions of Contract.
- 1.24 “Services” means those functional services ancillaries to the supply of the goods, such as transportation and any other incidental services, such as installation, commissioning, provision of technical assistance, training, catering, gardening, security, maintenance and other such obligations of the supplier covered under the contract.
- 1.25 “Written” or “in writing” means handwritten in ink or any form of electronic or mechanical writing.

2. Application

- 2.1 These general conditions are applicable to all bids, contracts and orders including bids for functional and professional services, sales, hiring, letting and the granting or acquiring of rights, but excluding immovable property, unless otherwise indicated in the bidding documents.
- 2.2 Where applicable, special conditions of contract are also laid down to cover specific supplies, services or works.
- 2.3 Where such special conditions of contract are in conflict with these general conditions, the special conditions shall apply.

3 General

- 3.1 Unless otherwise indicated in the bidding documents, the purchaser shall not be liable for any expense incurred in the preparation and submission of a bid. Where applicable a non-refundable fee for documents may be charged.
- 3.2 With certain exceptions, invitations to bid are only published in the Government Tender Bulletin. The Government Tender Bulletin may be obtained directly from the Government Printer, Private Bag X85, Pretoria 0001, or accessed electronically from www.treasury.gov.za

4. Standards

- 4.1 The goods supplied shall conform to the standards mentioned in the bidding documents and specifications.

5. Use of contract documents and information; inspection.

- 5.1 The supplier shall not, without the purchaser's prior written consent, disclose the contract, or any provision thereof, or any specification, plan, drawing, pattern, sample, or information furnished by or on behalf of the purchaser in connection therewith, to any person other than a person employed by the supplier in the performance of the contract. Disclosure to any such employed person shall be made in confidence and shall extend only so far as may be necessary for purposes of such performance.
- 5.2 The supplier shall not, without the purchaser's prior written consent, make use of any document or information mentioned in GCC clause 5.1 except for purposes of performing the contract.

- 5.3 Any document, other than the contract itself mentioned in GCC clause 5.1 shall remain the property of the purchaser and shall be returned (all copies) to the purchaser on completion of the supplier's performance under the contract if so, required by the purchaser.
- 5.4 The supplier shall permit the purchaser to inspect the supplier's records relating to the performance of the supplier and to have them audited by auditors appointed by the purchaser, if so, required by the purchaser.

6. Patent rights

- 6.1 The supplier shall indemnify the purchaser against all third-party claims of infringement of patent, trademark, or industrial design rights arising from use of the goods or any part thereof by the purchaser.

7. Performance security

- 7.1 Within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notification of contract award, the successful bidder shall furnish to the purchaser the performance security of the amount specified in SCC.
- 7.2 The proceeds of the performance security shall be payable to the purchaser as compensation for any loss resulting from the supplier's failure to complete his obligations under the contract.
- 7.3 The performance security shall be denominated in the currency of the contract, or in a freely convertible currency acceptable to the purchaser and shall be in one of the following forms:
- (a) a bank guarantee or an irrevocable letter of credit issued by a reputable bank located in the purchaser's country or abroad, acceptable to the purchaser, in the form provided in the bidding documents or another form acceptable to the purchaser; or
 - (b) a cashier's or certified cheque
- 7.4 The performance security will be discharged by the purchaser and returned to the supplier not later than thirty (30) days following the date of completion of the supplier's performance obligations under the contract, including any warranty obligations, unless otherwise specified in SCC.

8. Inspections, tests and analyses

- 8.1 All pre-bidding testing will be for the account of the bidder.
- 8.2 If it is a bid condition that supplies to be produced or services to be rendered should at any stage during production or execution or on completion be subject to inspection, the premises of the bidder or contractor shall be open, at all reasonable hours, for inspection by a representative of the Department or an organization acting on behalf of the Department.

- 8.3 If there are no inspection requirements indicated in the bidding documents and no mention is made in the contract, but during the contract period it is decided that inspections shall be carried out, the purchaser shall itself make the necessary arrangements, including payment arrangements with the testing authority concerned.
- 8.4 If the inspections, tests and analyses referred to in clauses 8.2 and 8.3 show the supplies to be in accordance with the contract requirements, the cost of the inspections, tests and analyses shall be defrayed by the purchaser.
- 8.5 Where the supplies or services referred to in clauses 8.2 and 8.3 do not comply with the contract requirements, irrespective of whether such supplies or services are accepted or not, the cost in connection with these inspections, tests or analyses shall be defrayed by the supplier.
- 8.6 Supplies and services which are referred to in clauses 8.2 and 8.3 and which do not comply with the contract requirements may be rejected.
- 8.7 Any contract supplies may on or after delivery be inspected, tested or analysed and may be rejected if found not to comply with the requirements of the contract. Such rejected supplies shall be held at the cost and risk of the supplier who shall, when called upon, remove them immediately at his own cost and forthwith substitute them with supplies which do comply with the requirements of the contract. Failing such removal, the rejected supplies shall be returned at the supplier's cost and risk. Should the supplier fail to provide the substitute supplies forthwith, the purchaser may, without giving the supplier further opportunity to substitute the rejected supplies, purchase such supplies as may be necessary at the expense of the supplier.
- 8.8 The provisions of clauses 8.4 to 8.7 shall not prejudice the right of the purchaser to cancel the contract on account of a breach of the conditions thereof, or to act in terms of Clause 23 of GCC.

9. Packing

- 9.1 The supplier shall provide such packing of the goods as is required to prevent their damage or deterioration during transit to their final destination, as indicated in the contract. The packing shall be sufficient to withstand, without limitation, rough handling during transit and exposure to extreme temperatures, salt and precipitation during transit, and open storage. Packing, case size and weights shall take into consideration, where appropriate, the remoteness of the goods' final destination and the absence of heavy handling facilities at all points in transit.

- 9.2 The packing, marking, and documentation within and outside the packages shall comply strictly with such special requirements as shall be expressly provided for in the contract, including additional requirements, if any, specified in SCC, and in any subsequent instructions ordered by the purchaser.

10. Delivery and documents

- 10.1 Delivery of the goods shall be made by the supplier in accordance with the terms specified in the contract. The details of shipping and/or other documents to be furnished by the supplier are specified in SCC.
- 10.2 Documents to be submitted by the supplier are specified in SCC.

11. Insurance

- 11.1 The goods supplied under the contract shall be fully insured in a freely convertible currency against loss or damage incidental to manufacture or acquisition, transportation, storage and delivery in the manner specified in the SCC.

12. Transportation

- 12.1 Should a price other than an all-inclusive delivered price be required, this shall be specified in the SCC.

13. Incidental services

- 13.1 The supplier may be required to provide any or all of the following services, including additional services, if any, specified in SCC:
- (a) performance or supervision of on-site assembly and/or commissioning of the supplied goods;
 - (b) furnishing of tools required for assembly and/or maintenance of the supplied goods;
 - (c) furnishing of a detailed operations and maintenance manual for each appropriate unit of the supplied goods;
 - (d) performance or supervision or maintenance and/or repair of the supplied goods, for a period of time agreed by the parties, provided that this service shall not relieve the supplier of any warranty obligations under this contract; and

- (e) training of the purchaser's personnel, at the supplier's plant and/or on-site, in assembly, start-up, operation, maintenance, and/or repair of the supplied goods.

13.2 Prices charged by the supplier for incidental services, if not included in the contract price for the goods, shall be agreed upon in advance by the parties and shall not exceed the prevailing rates charged to other parties by the supplier for similar services.

14. Spare parts

14.1 As specified in SCC, the supplier may be required to provide any or all of the following materials, notifications, and information pertaining to spare parts manufactured or distributed by the supplier:

- (a) such spare parts as the purchaser may elect to purchase from the supplier, provided that this election shall not relieve the supplier of any warranty obligations under the contract; and
- (b) in the event of termination of production of the spare parts:
 - (i) Advance notification to the purchaser of the pending termination, in sufficient time to permit the purchaser to procure needed requirements; and
 - (ii) following such termination, furnishing at no cost to the purchaser, the blueprints, drawings, and specifications of the spare parts, if requested.

15. Warranty

15.1 The supplier warrants that the goods supplied under the contract are new, unused, of the most recent or current models, and that they incorporate all recent improvements in design and materials unless provided otherwise in the contract. The supplier further warrants that all goods supplied under this contract shall have no defect, arising from design, materials, or workmanship (except when the design and/or material is required by the purchaser's specifications) or from any act or omission of the supplier, that may develop under normal use of the supplied goods in the conditions prevailing in the country of final destination.

15.2 This warranty shall remain valid for twelve (12) months after the goods, or any portion thereof as the case may be, have been delivered to and accepted at the final destination indicated in the contract, or for eighteen (18) months after the date of shipment from the port or place of loading in the source country, whichever period concludes earlier, unless specified otherwise in SCC.

- 15.3 The purchaser shall promptly notify the supplier in writing of any claims arising under this warranty.
- 15.4 Upon receipt of such notice, the supplier shall, within the period specified in SCC and with all reasonable speed, repair or replace the defective goods or parts thereof, without costs to the purchaser.
- 15.5 If the supplier, having been notified, fails to remedy the defect(s) within the period specified in SCC, the purchaser may proceed to take such remedial action as may be necessary, at the supplier's risk and expense and without prejudice to any other rights which the purchaser may have against the supplier under the contract.

16. Payment

- 16.1 The method and conditions of payment to be made to the supplier under this contract shall be specified in SCC.
- 16.2 The supplier shall furnish the purchaser with an invoice accompanied by a copy of the delivery note and upon fulfilment of other obligations stipulated in the contract.
- 16.3 Payments shall be made promptly by the purchaser, but in no case later than thirty (30) days after submission of an invoice or claim by the supplier.
- 16.4 Payment will be made in Rand unless otherwise stipulated in SCC.

17. Prices

- 17.1 Prices charged by the supplier for goods delivered and services performed under the contract shall not vary from the prices quoted by the supplier in his bid, with the exception of any price adjustments authorized in SCC or in the purchaser's request for bid validity extension, as the case may be.

18. Contract amendments

- 18.1 No variation in or modification of the terms of the contract shall be made except by written amendment signed by the parties concerned.

19. Assignment

- 19.1 The supplier shall not assign, in whole or in part, its obligations to perform under the contract, except with the purchaser's prior written consent.

20. Subcontracts

- 20.1 The supplier shall notify the purchaser in writing of all subcontracts awarded under this contract if not already specified in the bid. Such notification, in the original bid or later, shall not relieve the supplier from any liability or obligation under the contract.

21. Delays in the supplier's performance

- 21.1 Delivery of the goods and performance of services shall be made by the supplier in accordance with the time schedule prescribed by the purchaser in the contract.
- 21.2 If at any time during performance of the contract, the supplier or its subcontractor(s) should encounter conditions impeding timely delivery of the goods and performance of services, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of the fact of the delay, its likely duration and its cause(s). As soon as practicable after receipt of the supplier's notice, the purchaser shall evaluate the situation and may at his discretion extend the supplier's time for performance, with or without the imposition of penalties, in which case the extension shall be ratified by the parties by amendment of contract.
- 21.3 No provision in a contract shall be deemed to prohibit the obtaining of supplies or services from a national department, provincial department, or a local authority.
- 21.4 The right is reserved to procure outside of the contract small quantities or to have minor essential services executed if an emergency arises, the supplier's point of supply is not situated at or near the place where the supplies are required, or the supplier's services are not readily available.
- 21.5 Except as provided under GCC Clause 25, a delay by the supplier in the performance of its delivery obligations shall render the supplier liable to the imposition of penalties, pursuant to GCC Clause 22, unless an extension of time is agreed upon pursuant to GCC Clause 21.2 without the application of penalties.
- 21.6 Upon any delay beyond the delivery period in the case of a supplies contract, the purchaser shall, without cancelling the contract, be entitled to purchase supplies of a similar quality and up to the same quantity in substitution of the goods not supplied in conformity with the contract and to return any goods delivered later at the supplier's expense and risk, or to cancel the contract and buy such goods as may be required to complete the contract and without prejudice to his other rights, be entitled to claim damages from the supplier.

22. Penalties

22.1 Subject to GCC Clause 25, if the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods or to perform the services within the period(s) specified in the contract, the purchaser shall, without prejudice to its other remedies under the contract, deduct from the contract price, as a penalty, a sum calculated on the delivered price of the delayed goods or unperformed services using the current prime interest rate calculated for each day of the delay until actual delivery or performance. The purchaser may also consider termination of the contract pursuant to GCC Clause 23.

23. Termination for default

23.1 The purchaser, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by written notice of default sent to the supplier, may terminate this contract in whole or in part:

- (a) if the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods within the period(s) specified in the contract, or within any extension thereof granted by the purchaser pursuant to GCC Clause 21.2;
- (b) if the Supplier fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the contract; or
- (c) if the supplier, in the judgment of the purchaser, has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for or in executing the contract.

23.2 In the event the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part, the purchaser may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, goods, works or services similar to those undelivered, and the supplier shall be liable to the purchaser for any excess costs for such similar goods, works or services. However, the supplier shall continue performance of the contract to the extent not terminated.

23.3 Where the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part, the purchaser may decide to impose a restriction penalty on the supplier by prohibiting such supplier from doing business with the public sector for a period not exceeding 10 years.

23.4 If a purchaser intends imposing a restriction on a supplier or any person associated with the supplier, the supplier will be allowed a time period of not more than fourteen (14) days to provide reasons why the envisaged restriction should not be imposed. Should the supplier fail to respond within the stipulated fourteen (14) days the purchaser may regard the intended penalty as not objected against and may impose it on the supplier.

23.5 Any restriction imposed on any person by the Accounting Officer / Authority will, at the discretion of the Accounting Officer / Authority, also be applicable to any other enterprise or any partner, manager, director or other person who wholly or partly exercises or exercised or may exercise control over the enterprise of the first-mentioned person, and with which enterprise or person the first-mentioned person, is or was in the opinion of the Accounting Officer / Authority actively associated.

23.6 If a restriction is imposed, the purchaser must, within five (5) working days of such imposition, furnish the National Treasury, with the following information:

- (i) the name and address of the supplier and / or person restricted by the purchaser;
- (ii) the date of commencement of the restriction
- (iii) the period of restriction; and
- (iv) the reasons for the restriction.

These details will be loaded in the National Treasury's central database of suppliers or persons prohibited from doing business with the public sector.

23.7 If a court of law convicts a person of an offence as contemplated in sections 12 or 13 of the Prevention and Combating of Corrupt Activities Act, No. 12 of 2004, the court may also rule that such person's name be endorsed on the Register for Tender Defaulters. When a person's name has been endorsed on the Register, the person will be prohibited from doing business with the public sector for a period not less than five years and not more than 10 years. The National Treasury is empowered to determine the period of restriction and each case will be dealt with on its own merits. According to section 32 of the Act the Register must be open to the public. The Register can be perused on the National Treasury website.

24. Anti- dumping and countervailing duties and rights

24.1 When, after the date of bid, provisional payments are required, or anti-dumping or countervailing duties are imposed, or the amount of a provisional payment or anti-dumping or countervailing right is increased in respect of any dumped or subsidized import, the State is not liable for any amount so required or imposed, or for the amount of any such increase. When, after the said date, such a provisional payment is no longer required or any such anti-dumping or countervailing right is abolished, or where the amount of such provisional payment or any such right is reduced, any such favourable difference shall on demand be paid forthwith by the contractor to the State or the State may deduct such amounts from moneys (if any) which
